

U.S. Navy Video Auditions

1. "Diagnostics" - 1 actor

Main Character – Female service member - brain cancer survivor (age 22 - 30; short hair)

Audition line: "I never thought it would happen to me. But I suppose I was lucky. They found my cancer before it was too late. We've all had friends and family who weren't as fortunate."

2. "Holistic" - 2 actors

Main Characters – Need both Female and Male service member (ages 22-30; need to be physically fit and into fitness) familiar with yoga / surfing / tai chi, etc.

Audition line: "Their holistic approach to healthcare made me ship shape again, and I will never forget what they do for all of us here."

3. "Little Warriors" - 3 actors

Main Characters – Need a Mother, Father and Child / Both parents should be between 22 -30 / One parent should appear enlisted / Need a child between age of 4 - 6 to act as a hospitalized patient

Audition line: "I've endured combat situations in theatre, but this was something I never expected to face. The joy of bringing our first child into the world, fractured by complications."

4. "Cutting Edge" - 1 actor

Main Character – Male Retiree recovering from heart disease (age 55 - 65)

Audition line: "I'll be honest - the thought of having heart surgery myself scared me. But the professional staff at Naval Medical Center San Diego found a better way to help me when it was my turn."

5. "Happy Birth Days" - 2 actors

Mom describes her high-risk pregnancy, and how the attentive staff and practices at NMCSD gave her and baby the best possible delivery experience.

Main Characters – Female talent age 30+ to 40; Infant (1-3 months); Mom with newborn a plus!

Audition line: "I was nearly 40 by the time my husband and I decided to start a family. Better late than never, I suppose. Despite my good health, my age placed me in the category of a high-risk pregnancy."

6. "Growing Pains" - 1 actor

The voice of a teenage girl describes the common trials we all share when coming into adulthood, and reveals the gratitude she has for the mentors and counselors from NMCSD's Adolescent Medicine pediatric subspecialty.

Main Character – Teenage girl age 15 - 16

Audition line: "Growing up isn't easy. And there's a lot they don't teach in school. I love my parents very much, but as I grew into my teens, I was definitely ready to face some aspects of my health on my own."